DEVELOPMENT OF FITNESS TESTING FOR POLICE OFFICERS

The Request for Proposal (RFP) for Development of Fitness Testing for Police Officers issued September 2, 2014, has been amended. The following question and answer are hereby included in the RFP:

Q: RFP states "the successful offeror will have a PhD. Psychologist with experience conducting job analysis and creating task based assessments for physical ability aspects of the job". Can you help me to understand why the offeror must be a Psychologist when the scope of work is creating assessments for the physical aspects of the job?

A: The City opinion is that a PhD is reverent for conducting job analysis and the specifications are unchanged.
